

XES Adapter Options

The XES adapter plug-in provides the following options.

Option	Description
Search for non-global attributes	If this option is selected, the wizard goes through all the traces and events of the entire event log and scans it for additional attributes that are not defined in the global attributes section of the XES file. If this option is deselected, only globally defined attributes are considered during the data integration.