Video Feature

The video feature provides the FFmpegVideoStream and OpenCVVideoStream protocol handlers, which generate image streams to be processed inside Odysseus. These handlers support different video codecs and pixel format. They are based on the FFmpeg and OpenCV ports of JavaCV and requires the ImageJCV feature.